

“Doctors for a Day” Program

Presented by:

*Community Partnership Charter School
Beginning with Children Foundation
Foundation for the Advancement of Minimally Invasive Surgery
Columbia University Department of Urology*

10-10:10am: Welcome to 3rd Annual “Doctors for a Day” Program
Children’s Hospital of New York
3959 Broadway, Tower 103
Mitchell Benson, MD, Department of Urology
Jaime Landman, MD, Department of Urology

10:10-10:30am: Who will create the future?
Children’s Hospital of New York
3959 Broadway, Tower 103
Jaime Landman, MD, Department of Urology

10:30-11:00am: Inside Out: Looking at your insides from the outside
Children’s Hospital of New York
3959 Broadway, Tower 103
Jeffrey Newhouse, MD, Professor of Radiology

Group Divides in two for ½ hour laboratory Sessions

11-12:00pm: Laboratory Outside In: Getting stuff on the inside...out
Laparoscopy Training Lab
622 West 168th St., PH 12th Floor, Room 126

Jaime Landman, MD Department of Urology
Ketan Badani, MD Department of Urology
Nancy Hogle, MS, BSN, RN, Department of Surgery

11-12:00pm: Poking and Prodding: Why we do it
Children’s Hospital of New York Tower 103
Rhonda Walsh MD, Maria Ordonez, MD
Department of Urology

- 12-1pm: You are what you eat: Nutrition and Lunch
Children's Hospital of New York, Tower 103
Sarah Baker, RD, CDN,
Pediatric Dietician, Nutrition and Support Services
Division of Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Nutrition
- 1-1:30pm: Trading Places: Organ Transplantation
Children's Hospital of New York, Tower 103
Patrician Harren, DrNP
Department of Pediatric Transplantation
- 1:30-2pm: Creepy Crawlies: Things that make you sick
Children's Hospital of New York
Maria Alexandra Ordonez
Department of Urology
- 2pm Program Concludes